6. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in "Essar Steel India Ltd. through Authorised Signatory v. Satish Kumar Gupta & Ors. (Civil Appeal No. 8766-67/2019) dated 15.11.2019" had observed as under:

"The effect of this declaration is that ordinarily the time taken in relation to the Corporate Resolution Process of the Corporate Debtor must be completed within the outer limit of 330 days from the Insolvency commencement date, including extensions and the time taken in legal proceedings. However, on the facts of a given case, if it can be shown to the Adjudicating Authority and/or Appellate Tribunal under the Code that only a short period is left for completion of the Insolvency Resolution Process beyond 330 days, and that it would be in the interest of all stakeholders that the Corporate Debtor be put back on its feet instead of being sent into liquidation and that the time taken in legal proceedings is largely due to factors owing to which the fault cannot be ascribed to the litigants before the Adjudicating Authority and /or Appellate Tribunal the delay or a large part thereof being attributable to the tardy process of the Adjudicating Authority and/or the Appellate Tribunal itself, it may be open in such cases for the Adjudicating Authority and/or Appellate tribunal to extend time beyond 330 days.”

7. The Hon’ble NCLAT in Quinn Logistics India Pvt. Ltd v.Mack Soft Tech Pvt. Ltd and ors., dated 08.05.2018 [CA(AT) (Insolvency) No. 185 of 2018] had held as follows:-

“9. From the decisions aforesaid, it is clear that if an application is filed by the ‘Resolution Professional’ or the ‘Committee of Creditors’ or ‘any aggrieved person’ for justified reasons, it is always open to the Adjudicating Authority/Appellate Tribunal to ‘exclude certain period’ for the purpose of counting the total period of 270 days, if the facts and circumstances justify exclusion, in unforeseen circumstances

10. For example, for following good grounds and unforeseen circumstances, the intervening period can be excluded for counting of the total period of 270 days of resolution process:-

i. If the corporate insolvency resolution process is stayed by ‘a court of law or the Adjudicating Authority or the Appellate Tribunal or the Hon’ble Supreme Court.

ii. If no ‘Resolution Professional’ is functioning for one or other reason during the corporate insolvency resolution process, such as removal.

iii. The period between the date of order of admission/moratorium is passed and the actual date on which the ‘Resolution Professional’ takes charge for completing the corporate insolvency resolution process.

iv. On hearing a case, if order is reserved by the Adjudicating Authority or the Appellate Tribunal or the Hon’ble Supreme Court and finally pass order enabling the ‘Resolution Professional’ to complete the corporate insolvency resolution process.

v. If the corporate insolvency resolution process is set aside by the Appellate Tribunal or order of the Appellate Tribunal is reversed by the Hon’ble Supreme Court and corporate insolvency resolution process is restored.

vi. Any other circumstances which justifies exclusion of certain period. However, after exclusion of the period, if further period is allowed the total number of days cannot exceed 270 days which is the maximum time limit prescribed under the Code.”

8. In view of the aforesaid discussion and judgement, for completion of CIRP of Corporate Debtor, the Corporate Insolvency Resolution Process Period of the Corporate Debtor is hereby extended for a further period of 90 days from the date on which CIRP Period was expiring i.e., 09.12.2023. Accordingly, I.A.(IBC)/6561/2023 & I.A. 129/2024 stands disposed off.

9. We also note that the present applications i.e., (i) I.A.(IBC)/6561/2023 seeking extension of 45 days beyond 08.12.2023 was filed on 06.12.2023 & (ii) I.A. 129/2024 seeking extension of 90 days beyond 23.01.2024 was filed on 06.01.2024. For an effective conclusion of the resolution process, this Adjudicating Authority further allows the exclusion of the period from filing of I.A. No. 6561 of 2023 on 06.12.2023 till the date of pronouncement of the present order from the Corporate Insolvency Resolution Process period of the Corporate Debtor. Accordingly I.A.(IBC)/1031/2024 stands allowed.
10. The resolution professional is directed to take all steps to complete the resolution process within the further period allowed to him in the present order.
