2023 filed U/s 95 of the Code.

4. The RP in person states that since an application has been filed for withdrawal of the main Company Petition, therefore the RP fees have to be paid by the Personal Guarantor in accordance with law.
5. Faced with this situation, the Ld. Counsel representing the Financial Creditor as well as the Personal Guarantor make statements at Bar that the RP fees would be taken care of and would be paid by the Personal Guarantor in accordance with law and as per the existing norms of the Applicant/Union Bank of India, which would be over and above the amount of settlement.
6. In view of the aforesaid statements made by the Ld. Counsel representing the Financial Creditor as well as the Personal Guarantor, we deem it appropriate to allow the present application i.e. IA No.191/2024 for withdrawal of the main Company Petition.
7. Let the fees of the RP be paid within a period of four weeks from today, which as per the statements made by the Ld. Counsels, as aforesaid would be over and above the amount of the settlement already reached.
8. With the aforesaid observations, the IA No.191/2024 is allowed and the main Company Petition No.18/ALD/2023 is dismissed as withdrawn. IAs as well as the main Company Petition stand disposed off.
9. Needless to say that in case the settlement arrived at inter se between the parties does not mature finally or fails for whatever reasons, the Applicant/ Financial Creditor would be at liberty to revive the said petition, as also prayed in sub-Clause (a) at page no.3 of the present application.
