(i)	Particulars of organization, functions and duties [Section 4(1)(b)(i)]	The National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT), situated on the Ground, 1st, 6th, 7th and 8th Floors, Block -3 and 1st Floor of Block-12, CGO Complex Lodhi Road, New Delhi-110003, wherein the Head of the NCLT is Hon'ble President Justice (Retd.) Sh. Anupinder Singh Grewal. NCLT was constituted under the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 was formally established on 1st June 2016 by the Government of India. Its establishment was based on the recommendations of the Justice Eradi Committee, which advocated for a unified forum to adjudicate matters relating to company law and insolvency, thereby eliminating the need for multiple adjudicating bodies. The creation of NCLT aimed to streamline the corporate dispute resolution process by consolidating the functions of the Company Law Board (CLB), the Board for Industrial and Financial Reconstruction (BIFR), and the Appellate Authority for Industrial and Financial Reconstruction (AAIFR). Certain company law matters previously dealt with by the High Courts are to be dealt with by the NCLT, bringing all company-related disputes under a single, specialized quasi-judicial body. After enactment of Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (IBC) in 2016, NCLT has been designated as Adjudicating Authority. The NCLT was envisioned as a key institutional reform to ensure efficiency, consistency, and faster resolution of corporate and insolvency matters in India. Its formation marked a significant step towards modernizing the corporate legal framework and improving the ease of doing business in the country. The vision of the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) is to emerge as an efficient judicial institution that ensures timely and effective adjudication of disputes related to company law, corporate insolvency and individual insolvency, including that of personal guarantors. The National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) performs a wide range of functions as a specialized judicial body under the Companies Act, 2013 and designated as the Adjudicating Authority under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (IBC), 2016. Its functions inter alia are as follows: a. To adjudicate disputes related to oppression and mismanagement, class action suits, reduction of share capital, rectification of the register of members, amalgamations and mergers, restoration of the name of Company, winding up and other functions under the Companies Act. b. Has the exclusive jurisdiction to commence and adjudicate Corporate Insolvency Resolution Process (CIRP) cases and pass necessary orders. c. Has the jurisdiction to commence and adjudicate Insolvency Resolution Process for Personal Guarantors to Corporate Debtors, which include orders on repayment plan and bankruptcy. d. Plays an important role in ensuring compliance with the timeline prescribed under the provisions of the IBC. The organization chart of NCLT is as under: -
