

Sri Yogendra Kumar Singh, IRS (Retd.)

Sri Y. K. Singh is a superannuated Officer of the 1988 batch of the Indian Revenue Service (IRS-Income Tax). A multifaceted officer, Sri Singh has extensive work experience in various positions during his tenure of about 35 years in Income Tax Department. His work sphere covered investigation of tax evasion petitions, surveys and searches as well as dealing with grievance redressal and transparency and integrity in tax administration.

He also worked as Chief Vigilance Officer in Ministry of Rural Development, Govt. of India. He headed the Income Tax Assessments under Faceless Assessment Scheme, now the flagship of Income Tax Department. He superannuated as Director General Income Tax (Systems), having responsibility of supervision of complete makeover of the online processes of Income Tax Department. It benefited the tax payer and professionals immensely and helped them carry out everything online, from PAN application, return filing, payment of taxes to assessments and appeals etc., without leaving their comfort zone at home or office.

He is currently serving as Member (Technical) at NCLT, Guwahati Bench.

Sri Yogendra Kumar Singh, IRS (Retd.)