

(Dr.) Patibandla Satyanarayana Prasad, Judicial Member is an LL.M, from Rashtrasant Tukadoji Maharaj Nagpur University. He has worked as a Legal Adviser in Reserve Bank of India, Central office, Mumbai in the rank of Chief General Manager before joining as Judicial Member in National Company Law Tribunal, New Delhi. He is also pursuing his Ph.D in Law from Mumbai University. As a student of Bachelor of Law he has secured University third rank and three special prizes for topping the Andhra University in three different law subjects (Banking Laws, Procedural Laws and Law of Contracts). He has graduated in Commerce from Andhra University Vishakhapatnam. He has received high ranking, in the certificate course on “Arbitration and Alternative Dispute Resolution” conducted by United Nations Institute for Training and Research (UNITAR) Switzerland, Geneva. Apart from being a qualified legal professional, he is also a Post Graduate Diploma holder in (i) Marketing and Sales Management; and (ii) Industrial Relations & Personnel Management. He is also a Certificate holder of courses on “Public Debt Management” from UNITAR, Switzerland, Geneva and “Intellectual Property Rights” from WIPO, Switzerland, Geneva. He received first rank in the Certificate course on Right to Information Act, 2005 jointly conducted by Centre for Good Governance, Hyderabad, India and Department of Personnel Training, GOI, New Delhi. He received Max Planck short term Fellowship from the Max Planck Institute for Comparative and International Private Law, Hamburg, Germany and visited the said Institute to study European Banking Laws. He has an experience of over three decades in the field of Law. He became a Member of Andhra Pradesh State Bar Council in the year 1987 after his graduation in Law and practised at Visakhapatnam District & Sessions Court. He is a regular visiting faculty for many Academic and Professional Institutes. He has published nearly 25 articles on different legal and non-legal subjects.