NOTICE

The Registry is frequently receiving calls requesting clarification or information regarding pending scrutiny, listing of numbered cases, certified copies of orders and status of uploading the orders in the e-portal.

Hence, all the litigants and Advocates/ PCS are hereby informed as under:

1.	The Registry is committed to the expeditious scrutiny of all pending matters on a priority basis, according to their period of pendency.
2.	The role of the Registry is an administrative only and does not extend to provide any legal advice on pending cases.
3.	Company Petitions filed under Sections 241, 242, and 244 of the Companies Act, once numbered, will be listed on the next working Thursday . a. All other Company Petitions, once numbered, will be listed within two working days (subject to the roster of the Hon'ble Bench) b. Interlocutory Applications, once numbered, will be listed on the next working day , irrespective of the listing date of the connected main Petition. (subject to the roster of the Hon'ble Bench)
4.	Certified or free copies of orders will, as far as possible, be issued to the concerned Advocates/PCS within two working days , subject to staff availability and depending on volumes of pages.
5.	Orders in reserved matters, after pronouncement, will be uploaded in the DMS portal of the NCLT on the same day or the next working day.
6.	Additional documents or pleadings filed without the permission of the Hon'ble Bench will not be accepted by the Registry.
7.	Once a matter is reserved for orders, no further pleadings shall be accepted, unless liberty is specifically granted by the Hon'ble Bench.
8.	All additional documents such as Counters, affidavits, memos, and proof of service etc., are to be filed along with a copy of the order, wherein the Hon'ble Bench has directed to file the same.
9.	Any Additional documents such as Memos, Affidavits, Proof of Service, written arguments and counters etc., are required to be e-filed, while serving on the opposite party at least three days prior to the listing date of the concerned matter . Late filings will not be accepted by the Registry. Hard copies of all additional documents are required to be submitted to the Registry at least two days prior to the listing date of the matter . Late submissions will not be accepted by the Registry.

10.	All defects notified must be rectified in a single instance within the prescribed time frame.
