NOTICE

Reg: -E-Filing.

NCLT Rule 28(2) on Defective Filing.

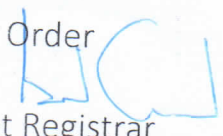

In accordance with the directions issued vide E-mail dated 07th April 2022 of the Ld. Registrar, NCLT, New Delhi, attention of the Advocates/Professionals is invited to Rule 28(2) of NCLT Rules, 2016 which reads as under: -

"If on scrutiny, the appeal or petition or application or document is found to be defective, such document shall, after notice to the party, be returned for compliance and if there is a failure to comply within seven days from the date of return, the same shall be placed before the Registrar who may pass appropriate orders".

Since the introduction of the E-Filing system at this Bench on and from 15/07/2020, it is observed that several defective filings are lying in the E-filing Portal which are yet to be rectified and refiled. The defects raised in the filings have already been sent to the respective Advocates/Professionals by the system generated emails and which can also be viewed by them by logging on to the E-filing portal.

In compliance with Rule 28(2) of NCLT Rules, 2016 notice is hereby given to the parties, as the last chance, to rectify the defects within 7 working days from the date of this notice, failing which all these Petitions/Applications/Appeals etc will be placed before the Ld.Registrar for passing an appropriate order in terms of Rule 28(3) of NCLT Rules, 2016.
